RESPONSIBILITIES

To implement the Committee's purpose, the Committee shall have the following responsibilities. The Committee may supplement and, except as otherwise required by applicable law or the requirements of any stock exchange on which any of the Company's capital stock is listed, deviate from these activities as appropriate under the circumstances:

1. Overall Compensation Strategy. The Committee shall review, modify (as needed) and approve the overall compensation strategy and policies for the Company, including:

- reviewing and approving corporate and individual quantitative and qualitative performance goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's executive officers and other senior management, as appropriate, which powers shall include the power to exercise discretion to adjust compensation based on such goals and objectives;
- evaluating and approving the compensation plans and programs advisable for the Company, as well as evaluating and approving the modification or termination of existing plans and programs;
- establishing policies with respect to equity compensation arrangements with the objective of appropriately balancing the perceived value of equity compensation and the dilutive and other costs of that compensation to the Company;
- reviewing compensation practices and trends to assess the adequacy and competitiveness of the Company's executive compensation programs among comparable companies in the Company's industry and companies with which the Company competes for management talent; however, the Committee shall exercise independent judgment in determining the appropriate levels and types of compensation to be paid;
- reviewing and approving the terms of any employment agreements, severance arrangements, change-of-control protections and any other compensatory arrangements (including, without limitation, perquisites and any other form of compensation) for the Company's executive officers and, as appropriate, other senior management;
- reviewing and approving any compensation arrangement for any executive officer involving any subsidiary, special purpose or similar entity, taking into account the potential for conflicts of interest in such arrangements and whether the arrangement has the potential to benefit the Company;
- approving any loans by the Company to employees;
- reviewing the Company's practices and policies of employee compensation as they relate to risk management and risk-taking incentives, with the objective of balancing appropriate risk taking and the financial and operational well-being of the Company, and particularly to determine whether such compensation policies and practices are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company; and

- evaluating the efficacy of the Company's compensation policy and strategy in achieving expected benefits to the Company and otherwise furthering the Committee's policies.

2. Compensation of Chief Executive Officer. The Committee shall annually review and, after consultation with the non-employee members of the Board, approve the compensation and other terms of employment of the Company's Chief Executive Officer. The Committee shall evaluate the Chief Executive Officer's performance in light of relevant corporate performance goals and objectives, taking into account, among other things, the policies of the Committee and the Chief Executive Officer's performance in:

- fostering a corporate culture that promotes the highest level of integrity, adaptability and ethical standards, with the objective of driving performance;
- developing and executing the Company's long-term strategic plan and conducting the business of the Company in a manner appropriate to enhance long-term stockholder value;
- achieving the Chief Executive Officer's individual performance goals and objectives; and
- achieving any other corporate performance goals and objectives deemed relevant to the Chief Executive Officer as established by the Committee.

In determining the long-term incentive component of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation, the Committee should seek to achieve an appropriate level of risk and reward, taking into consideration the Company's performance and relative stockholder return, the potential benefits and costs to the Company of the award and such other criteria as the Committee deems advisable. The Chief Executive Officer may not be present during the voting or deliberations regarding his or her compensation.

3. Compensation of Other Executive Officers and Senior Management. The Committee shall review and approve the individual and corporate performance goals and objectives that are periodically established for the Company's other executive officers (as that term is defined in Section 16 of the Exchange Act and Rule 16a-1 thereunder) and other senior management, as appropriate. The Committee shall determine and approve all elements of the compensation and other terms of employment of these executive officers and other senior management. The Committee shall take into consideration each person's success in achieving his or her individual performance goals and objectives and the corporate performance goals and objectives deemed relevant to the person as established by the Committee. The Chief Executive Officer may be present during these deliberations, but may not vote.

4. *Committee Discretion Regarding Use of Authority. The Committee may, in its discretion, make recommendations to the full Board for approval of any or all of the matters described in Sections 1, 2 and 3 above rather than exercising the Committee's authority to take such actions itself.

5. *Compensation of Directors. Every two years, or more frequently as deemed appropriate, the Committee shall review and, after consultation with the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, recommend to the Board for approval the type and amount of compensation to be paid or awarded to Board members, including the form and amount of any retainers, meeting fees (if any), committee and committee chair fees and equity grants or awards.

6. *Management Succession. The Committee shall periodically review with the Chief Executive Officer the plans for succession for the Company's executive officers, as it sees fit, and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the selection of appropriate individuals to succeed to these positions.

7. *Selection of Compensation Consultants, Independent Legal Counsel and Other Advisors. The Committee shall have direct responsibility for the appointment, retention, termination, compensation and oversight of the work of compensation consultants, independent legal counsel or any other advisors engaged for the purpose of advising the Committee. Such compensation consultants, independent legal counsel or other advisors and consultants shall report directly, and be accountable, to the Committee. The Committee may select compensation consultants, independent legal counsel and other advisors to the Committee only after assessing the independence of such firms or persons in accordance with the requirements of any stock exchange on which any of the Company's capital stock is listed.

8. *Administration of Benefit Plans. The Committee shall have full power and authority to adopt, amend and terminate the Company's stock option plans, stock appreciation rights plans, restricted stock plans, pension and profit sharing plans, incentive plans, stock bonus plans, stock purchase plans, bonus plans, deferred compensation plans and sub-plans thereof and similar programs. The Committee shall have full power and authority to administer and to delegate the administration of these plans, establish guidelines, interpret plan documents, select participants, approve grants and awards, approve modifications to awards, and exercise such other power and authority as may be permitted or required under such plans. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board shall retain the right to act on all such matters without limiting the Committee's authority, subject to compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

9. *Compensation Discussion and Analysis. When and as required by applicable rules and regulations of the SEC in effect from time to time, the Committee shall review and discuss with management the Company's disclosures contained under the caption "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" for use in any of the Company's annual reports on Form 10-K, registration statements, proxy statements or information statements and make recommendations to the Board that the CD&A be approved for inclusion in the Company's annual reports on Form 10-K, registration statements, proxy statements or information statements.

10. *Conflict of Interest Disclosure. The Committee shall review and discuss with management any conflicts of interest raised by the work of a compensation consultant or advisor retained by the Committee or management and how such conflict is being addressed, and prepare any necessary disclosure in the Company's annual proxy statement in accordance with applicable SEC rules and regulations.

11. *Committee Report. The Committee shall prepare and review the Committee report on executive compensation to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement in accordance with applicable SEC rules and regulations.

12. *Committee Self-Assessment. The Committee shall review, discuss and assess its own performance at least annually. The Committee shall also annually review and assess the adequacy of this charter and shall recommend any proposed changes to the Board for its consideration.

13. *General Authority. The Committee shall perform such other functions and have such other powers as may be necessary or appropriate in the discharge of any of the foregoing.
